Charles M. Evans, Head of the Department of Social Science at Missouri Southern State College will participate in a Symposium on the American Revolution to be held in the Library of Congress in Washington, the week of May 2nd. Mr. Evans is Associate Professor of Political Science at MSSC.

The Symposium will include L. Quincy Mumford, Librarian of Congress, Henry S. Commager, Amherst College, J. H. Plumb, Professor of Modern English History of Christ's College, Cambridge University, England, Richard Bushman, Professor of History, Boston University, and Professor Edmund S. Morgan, Professor of History, Yale University.

The Symposium is the first in a series for the observance of the 200th anniversary of the Nation's independence, and will include the presentation and preparation of papers to become a permanent contribution to the better understanding of the American Revolution.

Mr. Evans resides at 510 Euclid Blvd. in Carthage.

Commencement Set May 23 For 384 Candidates for Graduation

Missouri Southern's fourth Commencement will be held Tuesday, May 23, in the fieldhouse, according to Dean of the College Dr. Edward S. Phinney. This marks the first year Missouri Southern has had an evening commencement. "We can avoid the heat of afternoon by having commencement exercises in the evening," remarked Dr. Phinney.

There are 384 candidates for graduation. Four students are candidates for two degrees, making a total of 388 degree candidacies. There are 154 candidates for the Bachelor of Science in Education degree, 99 for the Bachelor of Science, 55 for the Bachelor of Arts, 78 for the Associate of Science, and two for the Associate of Arts.

Speaker for the graduation will be Dr. Herbert W. Schooling, Chancellor of the University of Missouri.

Candidates are scheduled to assembly in Hearnes Hall at 6:00 p.m. that evening. Faculty members are to report to the Spiva Art Gallery at 6:20.

Marilyn Rush will be the organist for the professional march, "Marsh Romain" by Gounod.

The invocation will be delivered by the Reverend Ward Conklin of the First Presbyterian Church.

The Missouri Southern Collegiates will sing "Mannie" by Brahams.

College President Dr. Leon Billingsly will introduce the principle speaker of the evening, Dr. Herbert Schooling.

Dr. Billingsly will then present the Class of 1972 and confer diplomas.

Candidates and their degrees are listed beginning on page 6.

Dr. Robert Vaughn is shown after his May 2 Convocation. He is the star of the TV series "Man from UNCLE." (Chart photo by Edmund Brown)

History Professor Earns Doctorate

Dr. Robert Markman, Assistant Professor of History in the Social Science Department at Missouri Southern College, has completed his requirements for the Doctor of Philosophy Degree in History at the University of Oklahoma in Norman, Oklahoma. Dr. Markman will receive the degree at the May commencement at Norman.

Dr. Markman has been a member of the faculty of Missouri Southern College since 1967. He is a member of the American Association of University Professors, the Association of American Historians, and the Western Historical Association. His Master's Thesis was entitled "The United States in Viet Nam: 1954-1961." His Doctoral Dissertation is entitled, "The Arkansas Cherokees — 1817-1830." Dr. Markman's research completes a gap in the history of this interesting nation that has not previously been researched. It will be made available to scholars on microfilm by the University of Oklahoma Press.

Dr. Markman is a native of Eatontown, New Jersey. He received his B.S. Degree at Monmouth College in New Jersey, and both his M.A. and Ph.D. at the University of Oklahoma. Dr. Markman and his wife Joyce and their two daughters live at 211 Connor in Joplin.

Epsilon Gamma Wins College Bowl

Epsilon Gamma (English Club) emerged the winner during three days of competition in "College Bowl" held May 1-3 in the College Union Ballroom. Sponsored by Phi Theta Kappa, College Bowl is modeled after the popular television show of a few years back. Questions from various disciplines ranging from biology to history, were submitted by many members of M.S.C.'s faculty. Competition included three rounds, each using progressively harder questions. Entered in the first round were eleven campus organizations; CIRUNA, Circle K, College Union Board, College Players, Delta Phi Delta, Delta Tau No. 1, No. 2 and No. 3, Epsilon Gamma, Kappa Alpha and Mu Sigma Gamma. The winners of the first round, CIRUNA, CUB, Delta Phi Delta, Delta Tau No. 2, Kappa Alpha and Epsilon Gamma moved into second round play with Delta Phi Delta, Delta Tau No. 2 and Epsilon Gamma competing in the finals. After a very close race, Epsilon Gamma competing in the finals. After a very close race, Epsilon Gamma came out the winners. The winning team members were Connie Harrington, Greg Holtz, Molly Pannell, Salvador Pinola and Connie Harrington.

Editorial Comment..

Dan Koch, editor of the Chart, is pictured. Along with Edmund Brown, Managing Editor, he comments on some of the aspects of Missouri Southern College.

I have attended Missouri Southern College ever since it became a four-year institution in the fall term of 1968. I feel that I have grown with this college.

I can remember when "they rolled up the sidewalks at 4 o'clock" and this wasn't very far from wrong. The college was only in its second year at the new campus. There were no residence halls except the one for athletes, no modern student union, no Kuhn Hall and no technology building. The College Union Board had not been organized, all student activities were run by the Student Senate.

Students were much more apathetic than they are now. Many more students are involved now.

In looking back and comparing the past with the present, I would like to offer my suggestions for the future. I do this so students may get a better idea of how to make their individual college careers more rewarding experiences.

In the first place, I would urge all students to become involved. This means every student should feel a part of the campus and be proud of Missouri Southern College. Attend all college functions and meet many people. Get really involved in studies. Be proud to be a Lion. The only reason college life is dull is because there are students who are not involved. It doesn't have to be this way.

College presents a unique opportunity in a person's life to meet people of all walks of life and to take part in activities otherwise unavailable to the ordinary person. This is why students should make every effort to attend all college convocations. These events present rare opportunities to meet famous national and international figures. They are also very expensive to bring to the campus.

I would also urge students to broaden their interests while at college. The most rewarding life is a well-rounded one. Get acquainted with other fields besides those in your major area of study. Browse in the library.

I would like to take time to offer the following specific suggestions to students and administration. I would urge that the natural beauty of the campus be preserved. I feel no more construction should be made in the area where buildings are now located. Buildings should be utilized more fully if increased enrollment warrants it. For example, classes could be held to an advantage in the afternoons, the campus is practically empty after 3:00 p.m.

The College does not need to embark on such construction adventures as tearing down the wall between the Union and the Business Building. Nor do the building of fancy entrance gates add much to the worth of the college. Junge Stadium can provide us with a football field for the Lions for several years to come, so why consider a new one.

I would urge the faculties of each department to drop the parochial attitude and recognize other disciplines exist besides their particular one.

Also I feel the curriculum should be modified so that upper division courses would be offered at regular intervals. Two upper division courses in the same major should be offered at different times of the day.

I would like to urge more students to participate in journalism activities and to revive the Crossroads. Participation on the Chart staff could be improved for future continuation of the paper.

I believe equipment should be used to greater advantage. Why should journalism students be denied the use of the very expensive Law Enforcement darkroom when they have absolutely no means to develop and print pictures.

The ridiculous rules concerning car parking stickers should be dropped. Why must cars be headed in when they are parked? Does this allow the campus cop to stay in his car to check parking stickers? Why have stickers anyway, who else but MSC students is going to park on the lots anyway?

Residence halls also need fewer archaic curfews and rules. Also, residence halls need to be kept open during the vacations to accommodate those who live long distances from Joplin.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank a certain group of people who have done more than anyone else to really unify MSC, and this group is the athletes. "Lion Pride" has truly become a symbol of pride. Athletes not only unify students, they bring other ways of life from all over the country to Joplin. These men are very excellent ambassadors of good will.

In closing, I would like to say, Lion Pride is being involved.

Edmund O. Brown II

At the end of this semester we find the Chart at the Crossroads. It will either improve next year or fold all together. The future of the Chart will depend primarily on two attitudinal factors.

The first of these factors deals with the attitude of the administration. In order to have a good Chart, there must be a good Chart staff. In order to have a good Chart staff, there must be good staff salaries. Each edition of the Chart brings in an average of $300.00 revenue to that ominous thing called the "general fund". We suggest that all of this revenue be used to pay staff salaries.

Once this is done the attitude of the staff members will be improved and the quality of the Chart will similarly improve. If steps are not taken immediately in this direction the Chart will fold.

At this time I would like to thank everyone who helped with the Chart this year. The editors

Joe Preppie Gets Busted

By Tim Hughes

Students planning to return to Missouri Southern next fall have been advised by their advisors and by the school administration that by registering now, their classes for next fall would be available. But for many students like Joe Preppie the real struggle came during the verification of the student's registration.

It just so happened that all the courses Joe had registered for had somehow been closed by the time he got to the verification tables. And after standing in line for the better part of two hours, Joe Preppie was ready to sign up for any course — "First Aid Care of Blistered Feet" sound good. So forgetting all his former aspirations, he re-registered in the courses that were open, even though "Advanced Phrenology", "Twentieth Century Lethargy", and "Medieval Anatomy" were not requirements for his major.

Two days later Joe Preppie learned that there was room for him in a physical education course he wished to take. Feeling that Lady Luck had finally smiled on him, he walked jauntily over to the third floor of the College Union. Joe was shocked to find the top floor full of other students who were also wanting to either drop a class, or add one, or both.

"What!" one girl was raging. "I can't afford to pay such a fine. I just bought a new car and I'm broke."

"Wait a minute!" another student protested. "Why can't I take 19 hours? Students at other colleges can take that many without being fined! What's so magic about 17½?"

The poor secretary, who had been bombarded with these kind of questions for the past two days, replied, "That's the president's shirt size."

"What a hassle," the student said pulling his wallet from his pocket.

"Just sign the yellow sheet, fill out a little pink card, and fill out a little green card," the secretary recited automatically.

Finally Joe's turn came.

"My name's Joe Preppie. I'd like to add a course to my schedule."

"Alright," the secretary said thumbing through her files. "In what course would you like to enroll?"

"I'd like to take 'Introduction to Hoola-hooper'."

"Let's see. . . . 'Intro. to Hoola-hooper', ½ credit. Alright, just fill out this little pink card, the add card. By the way, you'll have to pay a $50 add fine."

"$50!" Joe gulped. "But it's not my fault that I didn't get the classes that I wanted. . . ."

"I'm sorry, but that's the way it is. You do want to take 'Hoola-hooper' don't you?"

Joe thought for a moment and said remorsefully, "Well, here goes my summer trip to Florida." And he paid the secretary the money.

"Thank you," said the secretary understandingly.

Joe turned to leave.

"Oh, wait a minute!" she said. "I just checked your schedule. You are now carrying 17½ hours. I'm sorry, but there is a fine for carrying over 17½ credits."

"But, why?" This is ridiculous!"

"I'm sorry, but it's for your own good."

"For my own good! Like highway robbery is for my own good! Listen, I'm a pretty good student, I can handle 17½ hours."

"I'm truly sorry."

"Just ask my instructors here at school, I bet I can get their permission to take 17½ hours."

"I'm sorry, but rules are rules, and if you want to take 'Hoola-hooper' you'll have to pay $200."

"Now wait just a minute — you've got me trapped — I need this course for my major!"

"I'm awfully sorry."

"Well," Joe said still shaking his head, "I guess I didn't really want a new summer suit after all."

"Now let's see. Oh I almost forgot. There is also a $35 equipment fee for 'Introduction to Hoola-hooper.'"

"O.K." said Joe, resigned to defeat. "You win, no new tennis racket for this summer either." Joe slapped the money down on the counter, and started toward the main door.

The secretary called to him, "Oh, yes, something else. . . ."

Joe wheeled and shouted, "No! I won't pay it!"

"Oh," said the startled secretary, "I was just going to wish you a happy day!"

Biography of Commencement Speaker, Dr. Schooling, Released

Editor's Note: Dr. Herbert W. Schooling is scheduled to be the keynote speaker at Graduation May 23. Here are some facts about him.

COLUMBIA, MO. — Dr. Herbert W. Schooling was named chancellor of the University of Missouri-Columbia Jan. 28, 1972, by the University Board of Curators.

Dr. Schooling had been serving as interim chancellor for approximately 13 months, having been appointed to that post in December, 1970.

Dr. Schooling began his administrative career on Columbia Campus as dean of the College of Education on Sept. 1, 1963. He was the first person in University of Missouri-Columbia history to be named provost and only the second Columbia Campus dean of faculties. He was named to the latter post Feb. 1, 1966, and was given the added assignment of provost in July, 1969.

As provost, Dr. Schooling was the chief official of the chancellor's administrative staff, concerned with campus-wide operations that relate to the achievement of the University's educational mission. In his capacity as dean of faculties, Dr. Schooling was directly concerned with matters of educational policy, curriculum, academic staff and the budgets of the various campus divisions.

Born in Lawrence County near Pierce City in 1912, Dr. Schooling brought to the campus broad experience in elementary, secondary and higher education. His prior professional experience included six years as superintendent of schools at Webster Groves; associate professor of Education at the University of Chicago for two years; and superintendent of schools at North Kansas City where he served 11 years.

While he was superintendent at Webster Groves, Dr. Schooling taught graduate courses in school administration for three University Summer Sessions. Webster Groves named its school library for him after his departure.

Dr. Schooling received his doctor of education degree from the University in 1954. His bachelor of arts degree was granted from Southwest Missouri State in 1936. He received his master of arts degree in 1940 at the University.

He has been president of the Missouri Association of Secondary School principals; president of the Missouri Association of School Administrators; president of the North Central Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges; regional director of the Association of Public School Systems; chairman of the Commission on Research and Service of the North Central Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges; a member of the executive committee of the National School Public Relations Association; and a member of the National Committee on Ethics of the American Association of School Administrators.

He has served as a member of the reviewing committee for the National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education; a member of the national ethic committee of the American Association of School Administrators, and as a member of a commission of the American Association of School Administrators which prepared the publication, "Imperatives in Education."

Dr. Schooling did double duty during the Winter term of the 1965-66 school year, serving as dean of faculties and acting dean of education. He relinquished his title in the College of Education to Dr. Bob G. Woods on July 1, 1966.

Five Circle K Members to Meet

Five members of Circle K attended the Mo-Ark District of Circle International Convention held in Arkadelphia, Arkansas at Henderson State College. Members, John Hunt, Pam Higginbotham, Marolyn Howard, Betty Chapman and Beverly Smith, attended the scheduled general sessions, caucus meetings, luncheons and workshops beginning April 21 and ending April 23. Officers for the Mo-Ark District were elected by delegates of participating clubs. Guest speakers included the past governor of Kiwanis International, chairmen of Multiple Sclerosis and Project Concern.

A.C.E. Ends Year

The final meeting of the semester for the Association of Childhood Educators (ACE) was held April 20 in the College Union. Approximately 27 members and guests were present. Also present was Mr. B. W. Mason, MSC education instructor. Presiding at the meeting was Debra Dodson, ACE president.

Special speaker for the meeting was Mrs. Joyce Bowman, MSC speech instructor. She discussed "Creative Dramatics" and got the whole group involved in pretending they were various animals.

Three members of ACE participated in the March of Dimes Walk-A-Thon held last month in Joplin. Debra Dodson, Patty Dolan, Glenda Gurley, and Mrs. Gurley's two sons each walked 10 miles and contributed a total of $25.00 to the March of Dimes for ACE.

The members of ACE wish to thank everyone for the interest shown this semester to their group and they look forward to reorganization in the fall of '72.

Language Professor Tells of Childhood Experiences in Nazi Germany

Harold W. Bodon, Professor of Foreign Language, and head soccer coach, spent his childhood in Germany during World War II. He emigrated to the United States in 1951, and earned his baccalaureate degree at University of Utah and his Master's degree at California State.

Mr. Bodon was born in Stuttgart, and was a small child during the outbreak of World War II. "I first remember the propaganda when the Japanese attacked Pearl Harbor," remarked Bodon when asked what his first recollection of the war was. "The Nazi Government made great propaganda of it."

"Many of us in Germany knew the third Reich would be defeated if the United States entered the war, and we were apprehensive when America entered the war in 1941.

"I saw Hitler in person once in a parade in 1943. You could never be sure if it was actually him or a double, since he greatly feared assassination and could easily be imitated. His effect was hypnotic only in crowds, since the enthusiasm of the crowd was contagious. Over the radio, he was not so effective, since he used so many profanities. He referred to Americans as 'idiots', for example."

"I would say 20 percent of Germany's people support the Nazi regime, and the other 80 percent either were opposed to it or apathetic. But elections were 99, candidates. 9 percent in favor of National Socialists, since there were no curtains on voting booths and two armed guard watched the voter vote."

"All news media was state controlled, and there was a blanket of fear over the land. No one knew who informers were. Some children in the Hitler Youth informed on their own parents. Even the slightest criticism of Hitler in a conversation was enough to send the maker of the remark to a concentration camp with the Jews."

Mr. Bodon's mother worked for a Jewish family, and this family was not heard of after the war. The Bodons left Stuttgart in 1943 under cover, when allied bombing made the city a dangerous place to live. "My father asked for a transfer to a small town on the Swiss border, and we were granted it." The older Mr. Bodon was a civil defense worker.

Mr. Bodon's father served in the Kaiser's army in World War I, and his older brother was a marine in the Second World War. "He had three ships shot out from under him, and three times he swam for his life."

Mr. Bodon missed compulsory membership in the Hitler Youth in 1945 by three weeks, as the war ended. This group was composed of boys nine to 14 years of age.

When asked his opinion of the cause of Germany's disastrous adventure in dictatorship, Mr. Bodon had this to say, "The Germans are a very proud, very independent nationality, although they haven't been blessed by great leaders in the Twentieth Century. With proper leadership, Germany can become a great nation."

Mr. Bodon had this to say about the prospects of America being taken over by a Yascist regime, "The United States is much too large and diversified to be taken over by a minority. For example, the difference of opinions in California and here is very great."

"But it never hurts to be prepared."

Four S.A.M. Students to Conference

Four Missouri Southern College business majors have been selected to attend the International Management Conference, scheduled for May 22-23 in Phoenix, Ariz.

The students are all members of the Missouri Southern College chapter of the Society for the Advancement of Management (SAM). They are Jerry Black, president of the local chapter, and a junior; Greg O'Donnell, junior, and vice president; Larry Crowder, junior, treasurer, and Kreta Cable, sophomore, secretary. Also selected to attend the event is James Gray, MSC faculty advisor for the SAM chapter.

During the conference major topics to be discussed are "Travel and Leisure of the 70s," "Changing Concepts of Management" and "Recent Economic Change in Perspective."

Other MSC faculty advisors sponsoring the local group are John Tiede and James Worthington.

Guest speakers will be Gov. Jack Williams of Arizona; Derek J. Mitchell, economic minister and United Kingdom executive director of the British Embassy in the U.S.; Yoshio Okawana of the Japanese Embassy; Filemon C. Rodriguez, president of the Filoil Refining Co. in Manila in the Philippine Islands, and several other.

SAM, the society for the advancement of management, the recognized national professional organization of managers in industry, commerce, government and education, and the pioneer in management philosophy, has been dedicated to the promotion and advancement of the art and sciences of management since the original Taylor society was established in 1912.

The objectives of the university programs of SAM are threefold. (1) To bring closer together executives in business and students preparing to go into business. (2) To serve as an effective medium for the exchange and distribution of information on the problems, policies, and methods of industry and management. (3) To provide students with the opportunity to participate in the organizing, planning, directing, and controlling of the activities of an organization dedicated to the promotion and advancement of the art and science of management.

Three Senior Thespians to Spend Summer at Yarmouth, Mass. Theatre

SHOVING OFF FOR MASSACHUSETTS! Pat Ryan, Joyce McBroom, and Steve Scearcy will spend this summer at Yarmouth Theatre, Yarmouth, Massachusetts.

Three Missouri Southern State College Speech and Drama students have been accepted as actors and production assistants at the Yarmouth Theatre, Cape Cod Playhouse in Yarmouth, Massachusetts beginning June 12. The three are Joyce McBroom, graduating senior, Pat Ryan, senior drama major, and Steve Scearcy, graduating senior.

All three students have active been active in MSC drama for the past four years and are familiar actors to Barn Theatre patrons. Each student was chosen on the basis of his varied experience both on and off stage and the vast amount of practical theatre experience that each has had while attending MSC. Miss McBroom will be remembered for her memorable "Fred" the wacky princess of the swamps from ONCE UPON A MATTRESS. Scearcy just finished as Squire Hardcastle in SHE STOOPS TO CONQUER and Ryan was last seen as "Sir Harry," the romantic second lead in ONCE UPON A MATTRESS. All three have done children's theatre and are members of Alpha Psi Omega, the National Honorary Dramatic fraternity, for which each has earned membership by accumulating points for their acting and their technical theatre work.

The Yarmouth Playhouse operates a workshop as well as a summer stock theatre. The three thespians will report on June 12th for a season that lasts through September 12.

Medieval History Class Takes Trips

The Medieval History class participated recently in its two annual field trips. Mrs. Julie Hughes is the instructor for the group.

The first was a day long visit to the William Rockhill Nelson Art Gallery in Kansas City April 19. The group studied the museum's medieval chapel along with art from other periods.

The second trip was yesterday at Mrs. Hughe's home in Baxter Springs. The class had a medieval picnic which included dishes eaten in the Middle Ages.

WHAT RATINGS MEAN

NEW YORK — The Motion Picture Association of America rates films as G, PG, R and X.

G films are for general audiences with all ages admitted.

PG films suggest parental guidance since some material may not be suitable for pre-teenagers.

R films are restricted and those under 17 are required to be accompanied by an adult.

X films mean that no person under 17 will be admitted.

Delta Gamma Officers Elected

The newly elected officers of Delta Tau Colony of Delta Gamma fraternity are: president, Nancy Howerton; 1st vice president, Vicki Wilson; 2nd vice president, Jonnie Sue Furry; corresponding secretary, Sharon Ramey; recording secretary, Rayma Bekebrock; treasurer, Linda Parks; Anchora public relations, Chris Conyers; rush chairman, Connie Billingsly; assistant rush chairman, Debbie Shanks; scholarship chairman, Marti Allen; social chairman, Mary Davidson; historian, Alison Castagno; rituals chairman, Eileen Johnson; panhellenic delegate, Beverly Lynch.

Initiation of officers is set for May 18th.

On May 1st, three of the graduating seniors and the newly elected president were initiated into the newly formed colony of Delta Gamma in a special ceremony at the Alpha Omega Chapter house on the campus of the University of Arkansas.

Those initiated were Martha Cox, Margaret Campbell, Sandy Hayes, and Nancy Howerton. Miss Lucille Dinges and Mrs. Loraine Miner and Mrs. Barbara Morris were initiated as patronesses of the sorority in the same ceremony.

KA Sponsors Car Bash

Kappa Alpha fraternity sponsored a benefit car bash on Wednesday, May 3, in the main parking lot to raise money to help cover the cost and maybe save the life of a former MSC student, Joe Ford.

Joe was involved in a serious semi-truck-car accident four months ago and since that time he has been in a comma.

For 25 cents a swing, the student body could get rid of their hostile feelings and prepare for finals. The bash was very successful, according to KA president Dave Efford.

Women's P.E. Dept. Sponsors Play Day

by Kent McBride

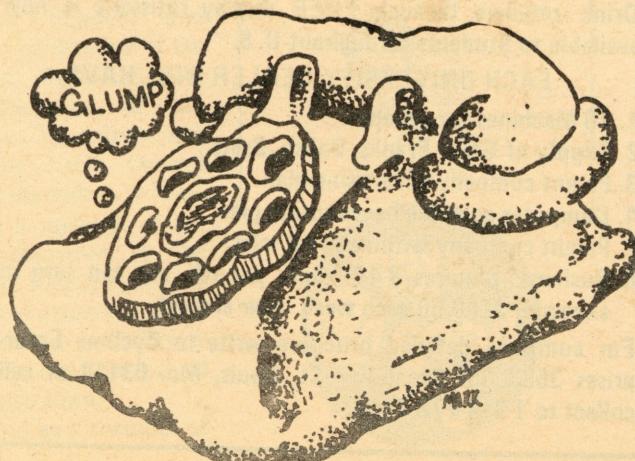

The Women's Physical Education Department at MSC held a Play Day for some 400 Senior and Junior High School girls from the tri-state area on Saturday, April 22 on the MSC campus. The purpose of the Play Day was to acquaint the younger girls with the campus and the P.E. Department, as well as giving them a chance to have some fun participating in the day's activities. The Play Day also afforded the Physical Education majors the chance to experiment with and improve on their teaching techniques.

The main job of planning and organizing Play Day was handled by a steering committee. Patty Bellora served as general chairman, Vicki Hensen and Christina Christensen were in charge of sending out invitations, Beth Hadley was the Hostess, and Jo Spille, Vicki Hensen, and Christina Christensen served as registration and program coordinators. All 50 of the majors helped in the clean-up chores after the day's activities. Sponsors for the 8 hour event were Physical Education instructors Miss Venus Yount and Miss Judith Lawson.

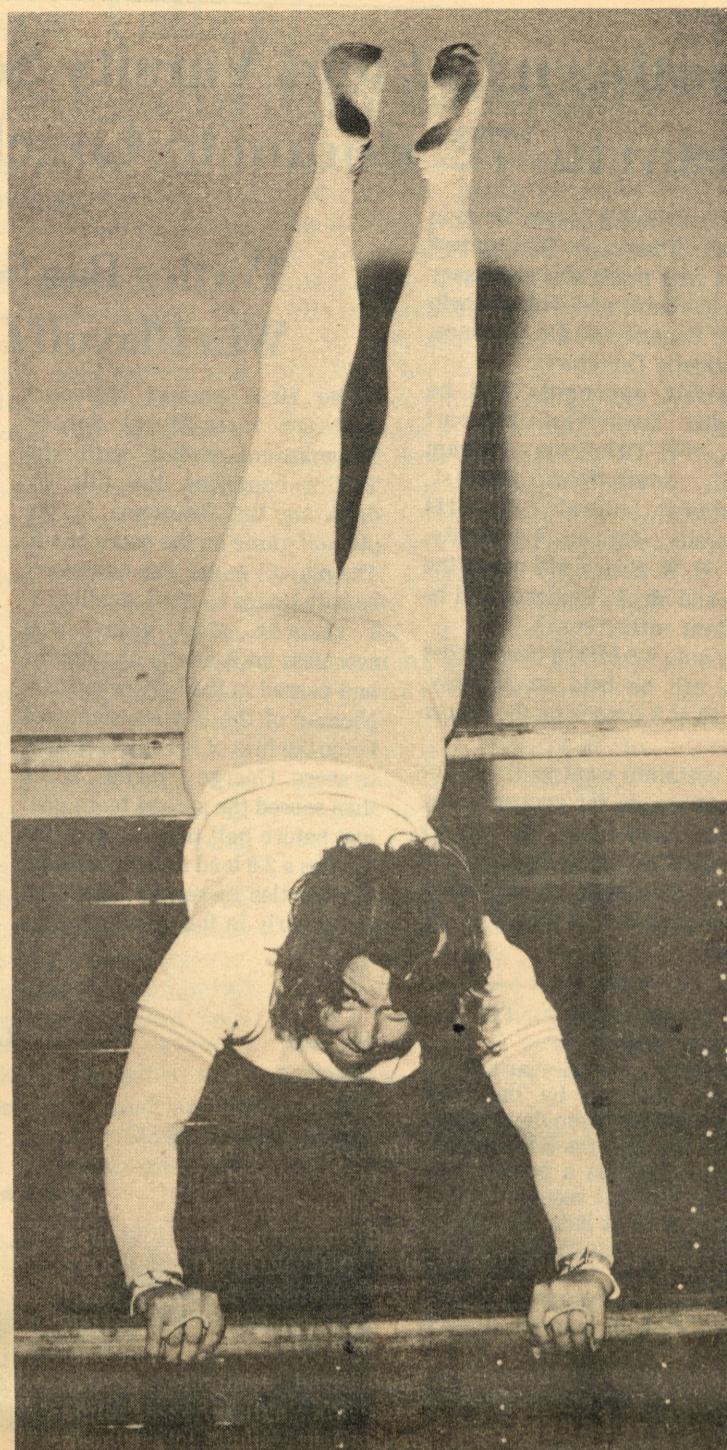

Play Day got underway at 7:45 with registration and the explanation of the field hours. The girls were allowed to choose three of the six activities offered. Activity one and the first part of Activity two were held before noon. The girls took a one hour lunch break and were entertained by a PomPom routine by the Webb City Redetts, and a free floor exercise performance by Jo Spille. After lunch the girls finished activity two and Activity three, and the Play Day ended with a closing ceremony.

Each of the six activities was coordinated by a group head, with the rest of the P.E. majors choosing which area they wished to assist in. Group heads included: Mary Kay Page, softball; Vicki Hensen, Tennis; Linda Weckherlin, fun games; Patti Bellora, gymnastics; Judy Jeffcott, Dance; and Beth Wilhite, Volleyball.

Many of the physical education instructors from the participating schools attended and felt that they too, had learned something at the end of the day's activities. The Women's Physical Education Department hopes to make Play Day an annual event each spring.

Southern to Field Varsity Soccer Team in '72, Bodon to Coach

MSC will field a Soccer Team in the fall. Thanks to the student senate who made the necessary funds available and with the help of Mr. Bogard and Dr. Dolence, the Athletic Director.

Possible opponents will be Evangel, South-West Missouri State, N-E Oklahoma, William Jewel, South-West Baptist, Rockhurst, Oral Roberts University, Ottawa University.

Mr. H. W. Bodon will coach the team and Mr. L. Studerns will be assistant soccer coach.

Try-outs for MSC's first soccer team will be held on Monday, Aug. 28 at 3 o'clock on the soccer field.

"I certainly want to thank the student senate for appropriating the necessary funds. We will try very hard to justify their faith in us by developing a top-notch soccer program at MSC." H. W. Bodon.

STARS IN A PINCH

NEW YORK — Rich McKinney, the 25-year-old infielder obtained by the New York Yankees from the Chicago White Sox for Stan Bahnsen, hit a robust .579 as a pinch hitter for the Sox last season. He had 11 hits in 19 at bats, plus three walks and a sacrifice fly.

McKinney, who will play third base in the spring exhibitions, led both leagues in pinch hitting. Willie Crawford of the Los Angeles Dodgers led National Leaguers in pinch hitting with .421.

Steve Blass of the Pittsburgh Pirates pitched five shutouts last season.

Thomas Receives Award at Fifth Athletic Dinner

John Thomas, 6-5 junior forward-center on the Missouri Southern College basketball squad, Friday night was named the first recipient of the annual E. O. Humphrey all-sports athlete award at the fifth annual MSC athletic dinner at the College Student Union.

The award is sponsored by Dick Humphrey, MSC faculty member in honor of his father, the first coach at Joplin Junior College — forerunner of MSC.

Thomas has scored more than 1,3000 points in his first three years at MSC and was an important cog in this year's team which placed first in District 16 of the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics.

Thomas, a project of Aliquippa, Pa., also was named the squad's most valuable player and was named for the second year to the all-district and all-state cage teams. He also earned honorable mention All-America for the second straight year and was chosen along with senior Jim Carter to Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. He also ranked first in the district in field goal percentage, second in rebounding and sixth in scoring. He was named the most valuable player of the Missouri Southern Christmas Classic Basketball tourney last year.

The award was presented by Humphrey and his wife and Thomas' name will be inscribed on a plaque which will permanently hang in the Missouri Southern College Fieldhouse.

Humphrey began his coaching career prior to World War I in the Joplin School system and returned to his post after serving with the U.S. Army during the war. He took the coaching reins at Joplin Junior College when it was established in 1937 and remained there several years. He retired from teaching in 1960 at Joplin Senior High School.

The Sportsmanship award on the Southern cage squad was presented to Bill Wagner, 6-6 pivot from Republic, who graduates this year. Also cited was Steve Spratt, senior guard who was co-captain of the club and was named to the all-tourney team during the Christmas Classic tourney.

The Hurn Award for the outstanding athlete the last year on the Southern grid squad went to Barry Korner, who also was named the team's outstanding linebacker and who received special mention by District 16.

Mike Sexton and Wayne Winter were cited for their honorable mention berth in the NAIA All-America balloting. Sexton and Winter were named to the all-District 16 squad.

Others receiving special mention in the district were Sam Bishop, Jack Duda, Terron Jackson and Carl Basler.

Receiving district honorable mention were Dennis Coffel, Mike O'Rourke, John Lukas and Marty Galbraith.

Team recognition went to Jack Duda, defensive back; Barry Korner, linebacker; Carl Basler, lineman; Mike Sexton, offensive back; Dennis Coffel, lineman; Bryant Davis, receiver; Wayne Winter, most improved player; Barry Korner, hustle award; Charles Hendricks, rookie of the year, and Sexton, most valuable player.

Terron Jackson received the outstanding performance award for his efforts in the homecoming game last year against Morningside College of Sioux City, Iowa.

Outstanding senior tennis player received a special award from Coach Wayne Stebbins. Other baseball, golf and tennis honors will be presented following completion of their spring seasons.

The players participating in the various sports were introduced by their respective coaches — Jim Frazier, football; Frank Davis, basketball; Ed Wuch, baseball; Stebbins, tennis, and Doug Landrith, golf.

Guest speaker at the fete was John Westbrook, a faculty member at Southwest Missouri State College, Springfield. Born in Elgin, Tex., Westbrook was an all-district high school star in football, basketball, track and baseball. He was named to the all-state team in football and played collegiate football at Baylor University where he was the first black player in the Southwest Conference.

Westbrook has worked with the Billy Graham Crusade and toured with Bill Glass prior to accepting his current position at SMS.

The speaker urged the some 250 persons attending the fete, especially the athletes, to become

"I have received several injuries during my sports career but none of them was as hard as life. You will find this, too. You have the ball now, what are you going to do with it?"

Westbrook added, "You can play your best in the last minute of a football game but you have to live life every second that you are

Lions Sweep Openers, Blow Nightcaps, in Evangel Series

The Missouri Southern Lions and the Evangel Crusaders each captured two games in their four game series. The two teams played two doubleheaders, with the Lions capturing the openers in both twinbills, 12-8 and 5-1 and the Crusaders winning both nightcaps, 3-2 and 7-2.

The Lions exploded for 7 runs in the fourth inning of the opening game of the twinbill on Evangel's home field to give Tim Allan his fourth victory against one defeat. The Lions sent 11 batters to the plate in the big inning, combining 6 hits, 2 Evangel errors, a wild pitch and a base on balls for the 7 runs. In their big inning, Dave Evans slugged a double Page collected two singles, and Ellis Gaydou, Bob Von Paige, and Allan each rapped one single. The Lions also added a pair of runs in the third and sixth innings in route to the 12-8 triumph.

Evangel ace Bruce Brandenburg held the Lions scoreless for the first six innings of the nightcap. The Lions got their two runs in the seventh, on two walks, a error, and Ellis Gaydou's double.

In Joplin, the Lions also captured the opener of the twinbill, as senior Bob Tignor picked up his first victory of the season, the final score in the contest being 5-1. In the second game of the twinbill, Brandenburg again stymied the Lions to pick up his sixth victory of the year. Tignor went the whole route in the first game, striking out 5 and issuing only one base on balls.

The Fourth inning was again the big inning for Coach Ed Wuch's charges as they sent four runners across home plate. The scoring started when Joe Ketchum rifled a double and took third on a passed ball. Dave Evans and Tyrone Hill each walked to load the bases, but Mike Whelan forced Ketchum at the plate. Bob Von Paige blasted a triple to send the three runners home, then scored himself on Ron Yocum's single. Tyrone Hill added the other Lion marker in the sixth as he reached first on an error, stole second, took third on a ground ball, then scored on another Evangel error. Tignor pitched out of a bases-loaded jam in the sixth inning as he got the Evangel batter to ground to short, and coasted home with the 5-1 triumph.

Things looked good for the Lions in the first inning of the second game, as they tagged the Evangel ace for two runs. But after the Crusaders scored four unearned runs in the second inning, the Crusader hurler held Missouri Southern scoreless for the rest of the game and gained his sixth victory against only one defeat, by the 7-2 margin.

This leaves the Lions season at 7-11 overall and 5-3 at home.

Bobby Winkles, who produced three NCAA championship baseball teams at Arizona State, will coach with the California Angels this year.

Play Missouri Western Today...

Lions Look West For Happy Ending

By Tim Hughes

After a humiliating double-header loss to Southwest Missouri State by scores of 8-3 and 12-8 in eight innings two weeks ago, Coach Ed Wuch's Lions bounced back to drop two district opponents in twinbills to set the stage for today's final game of the season with Missouri Western, the defending District 16 Champs. The green and gold ballhawks powered past Southwest Baptist by scores of 15-9 and 18-10 and downed Drury 2-1 and 10-5 to raise their District record to 10-6 for the year.

In today's game at Joe Becker

Stadium (first game starts at 1:00 p.m.) Coach Wuch will send Pitchers Bob Tignor and Tim Allan in an attempt to even the season with a 13-13 mark. Tignor, who leads the pitching staff with the best Earned Run Average of 1.93 with a 3-3 record, started against the Griffons on April 15, when Missouri Southern split a double-header losing the first game 8-1 but winning the nightcap 7-3. Allan, a freshman with the best record of 5-1 went in the second game to pick up a win. If either pitcher should get into trouble Wuch might call on Dave Efird or Southpaw Bryan Wisdom, who each have one save to their credit. Two other relief performers that might see duty are righthanders Roy Knight and Mickey Pace.

Leading the squad in hitting is Leftfielder Doug Page who is batting a .381 average. Other top hitters who have helped the club's team batting average to rise to .272 are Second Baseman Ellis Gaydou .348, Shortstop Phil Morgan .346, Third Baseman Joe Ketchum .338, and Right Fielder Mike Whelan .290. Ketchum leads the team in Runs Batted in with 17 and in doubles with 5 while Gaydou ranks first in hits and runs with 24 and 16 respectively.

600 Attend Heavyweights Concert

One of the bright moments in an otherwise dull spring was the concert appearance of Jerry Kirk and The Heavyweights. Jerry and the Heavyweights made their first appearance at MSC for the 1970 homecoming. Their return performance was attended by some 600 people, who judging from their response, thoroughly enjoyed the show. The Heavyweights displayed a wide variety of musical talent and showmanship as they kept the audience captivated throughout the whole show.

Starting with popular pop music, the Heavyweights took the audience back into American history, with a stirring "American Trilogy," consisting of "Dixie," "The Battle Hymn of Republic," and "All My Trials." A selection of songs from the rock musical "Jesus Christ Superstar" followed, arranged to fit the Heavyweights own particular style. The crowd then got a musical tour through their early childhood and the early periods of rock and roll, starting with such early stars as Jerry Lee Lewis and Elvis Presley in the 50's. The Platters, Four Seasons, and finally the Beatles ended the Heavyweights version of the history of rock and roll. They tried to end the night's performance with "You've got a lot to live, and Life has got a lot to give." A thunderous standing ovation brought the band back for one more song, and Jerry and the Heavyweights brought a delightful evening entertainment to an end with a fine rendition of Neil Diamond's "He ain't Heavy, He's My Brother."

One of the really "Heavy" highlights of the night's performance was a fan dance by the three really "Heavy" members of the band, Jim, Wayne, and Dean.

The Heavyweights, who put out their first album four months ago, are one of the many fine bands across the country who perform on a level equal to many of the more famous groups. But as of yet the Heavyweights have not developed a national following or a well-known national reputation. Jerry and his band play the nightclub and college circuit in the north-central United States, from Tan-Tar-A at the Lake of the Ozarks to as far north as Buffalo New York. Missouri Southern is as far south as the Heavyweights have performed.

According to band members they like to play for college crowds because the crowds are responsive and fun. They also feel that the exposure is good for them and if they get that one "Break" they can gain national prominence. I'm sure all who attended the Heavyweights concert will be inclined to agree and those who didn't, don't know what a musical treat they missed.
